Treasurer's Report - balance of $1211.08.

Committee Reports

Program: There will be no regular meeting in August as we are demonstrating August 24th at the NYS Fair Wool Building. Since Marguerite hasn't heard back from dyers or Dan Tracy, she will look into doing a program on using Ravelry in September. Jeanne Oliver will do an introduction to crochet for October or November. Other topics mentioned were sorting a fleece.

Old Business

CNY Fiber Arts Festival: Kirsten and members gave a brief review of the 2023 CNY Fiber Arts Festival. Although at least one member felt our booth space was too small now that the Wheel Corral has been removed, there was agreement that rearranging the layout would be sufficient. The suggestion was made to have no more than two to three members assigned to each demonstration time slot with a couple of their chairs and wheels and two festival-provided folding chairs for those visitors who want to sit and experience spinning, etc. The festival will give each guild six passes for demonstrators. The guild could purchase or acquire an inexpensive display rack or screen to place in the back of our booth for hanging items. Suggestions for possibilities were discussed, but one issue is where to store it. Thanks were offered to everyone who helped make this festival a success.

Fiber Competitions: The NYS Fair competition rules and entry forms (online only) can be found at <https://nysfair.ny.gov/competitions/how-to-enter/>. The last day to enter is August 2nd. Cherry Valley sponsors a $25 prize to be sent by us to the winner once the fair is over.
